NAME: _____

THE POWER OF 3

The EDPA is announcing a unique program that will reward members who encourage their colleagues to join the Association. The plan works like this: Bring a friend or colleague to join the EDPA fold and you'll receive up to 33% off the cost of your registration to our Annual Conference.

And your friends save too! All new EDPA members enrolled will receive the same 33% discount off Annual Conference registration.

EDPA

For over fifty years EDPA has been recognized as a global industry leader and advocate for professional recognition and excellence in the exhibition and event industry. We help our members grow their businesses through education, community, advocacy and good works.
